

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Achieving Multi-agency Situational Understanding

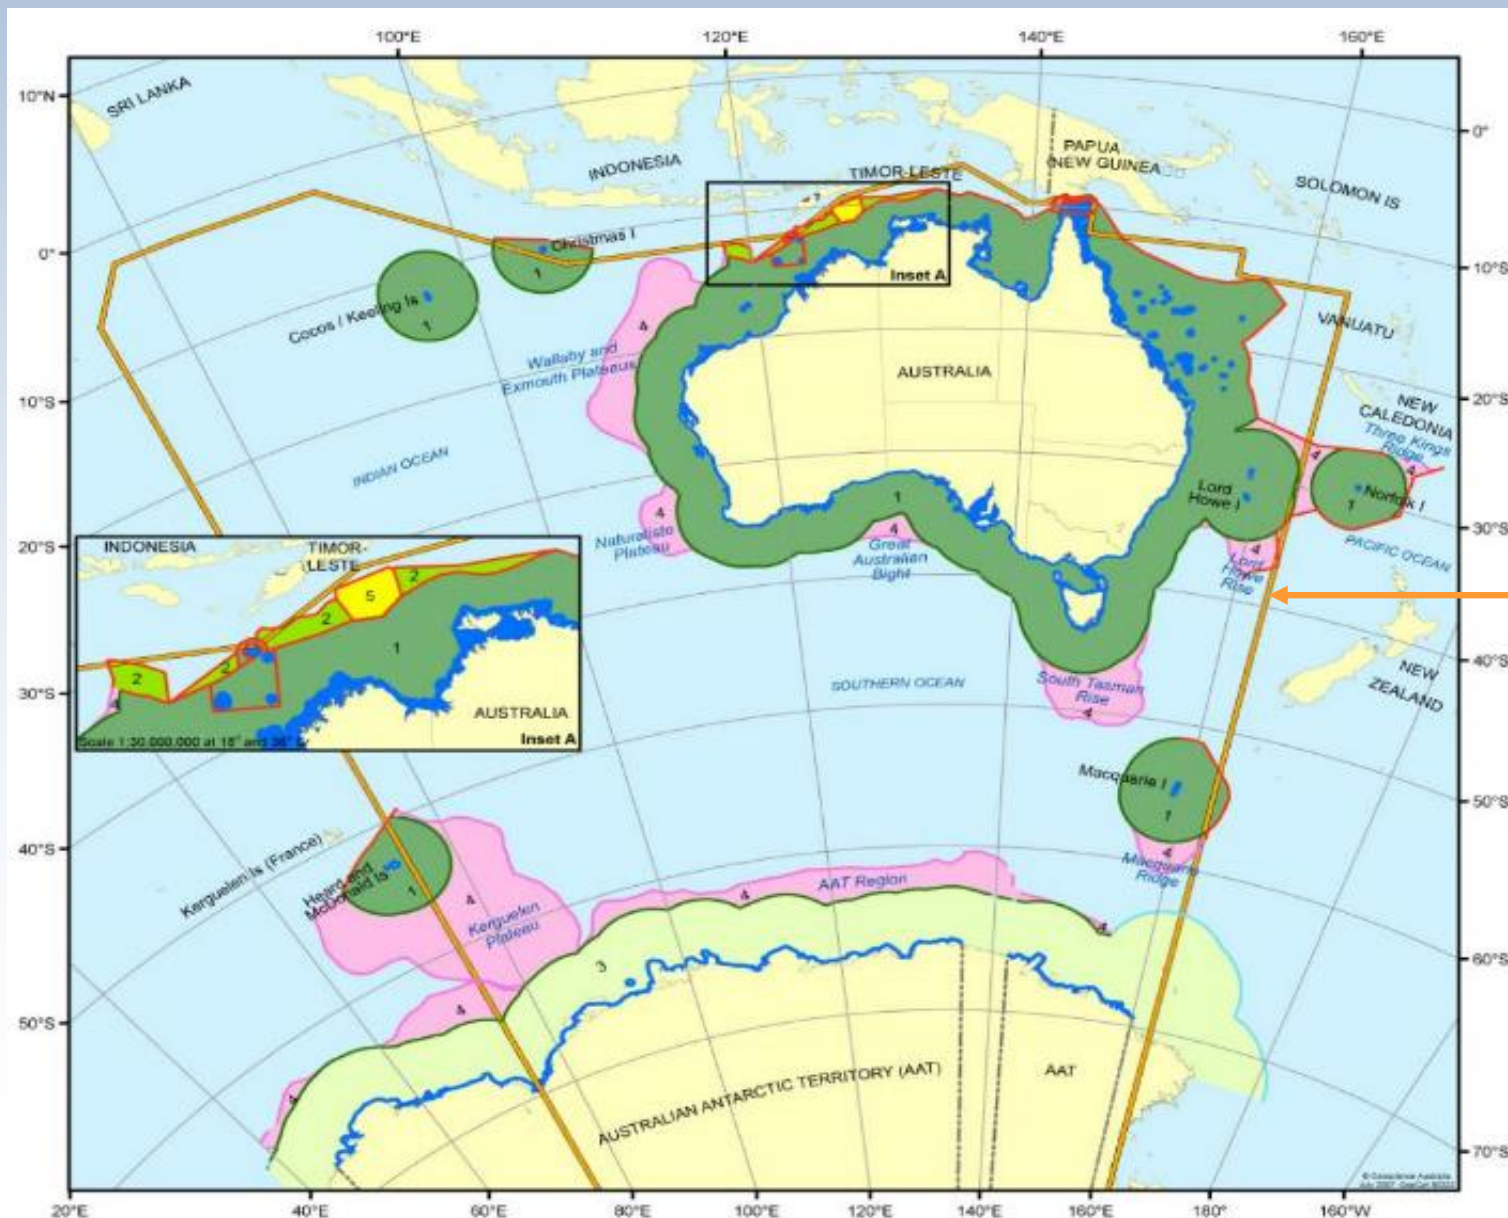

Co-operative and proactive engagement between organisations, exploiting identifiable strengths of those organisations in order to achieve mission success.

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Australian Maritime Domain

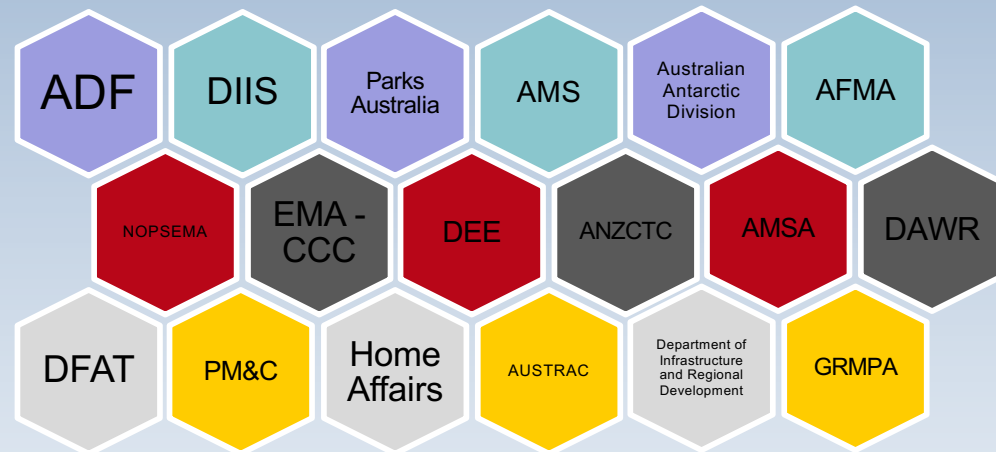

Security
Forces
Authority Area

Australian
BORDER FORCE

MBC Domestic Stakeholders

Other Government Agencies

Law Enforcement

- AFP
- State and Territory Police
- ACIC

Industry

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Civil Maritime Security Threats

Illegal Maritime Arrivals

Illegal Exploitation of Natural Resources

Illegal Activity in Protected Areas

Compromise to Bio-security

Maritime Terrorism

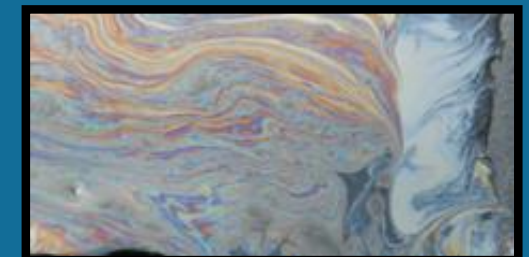

Prohibited Imports and Exports

Piracy, Robbery and Violence at Sea

Marine Pollution

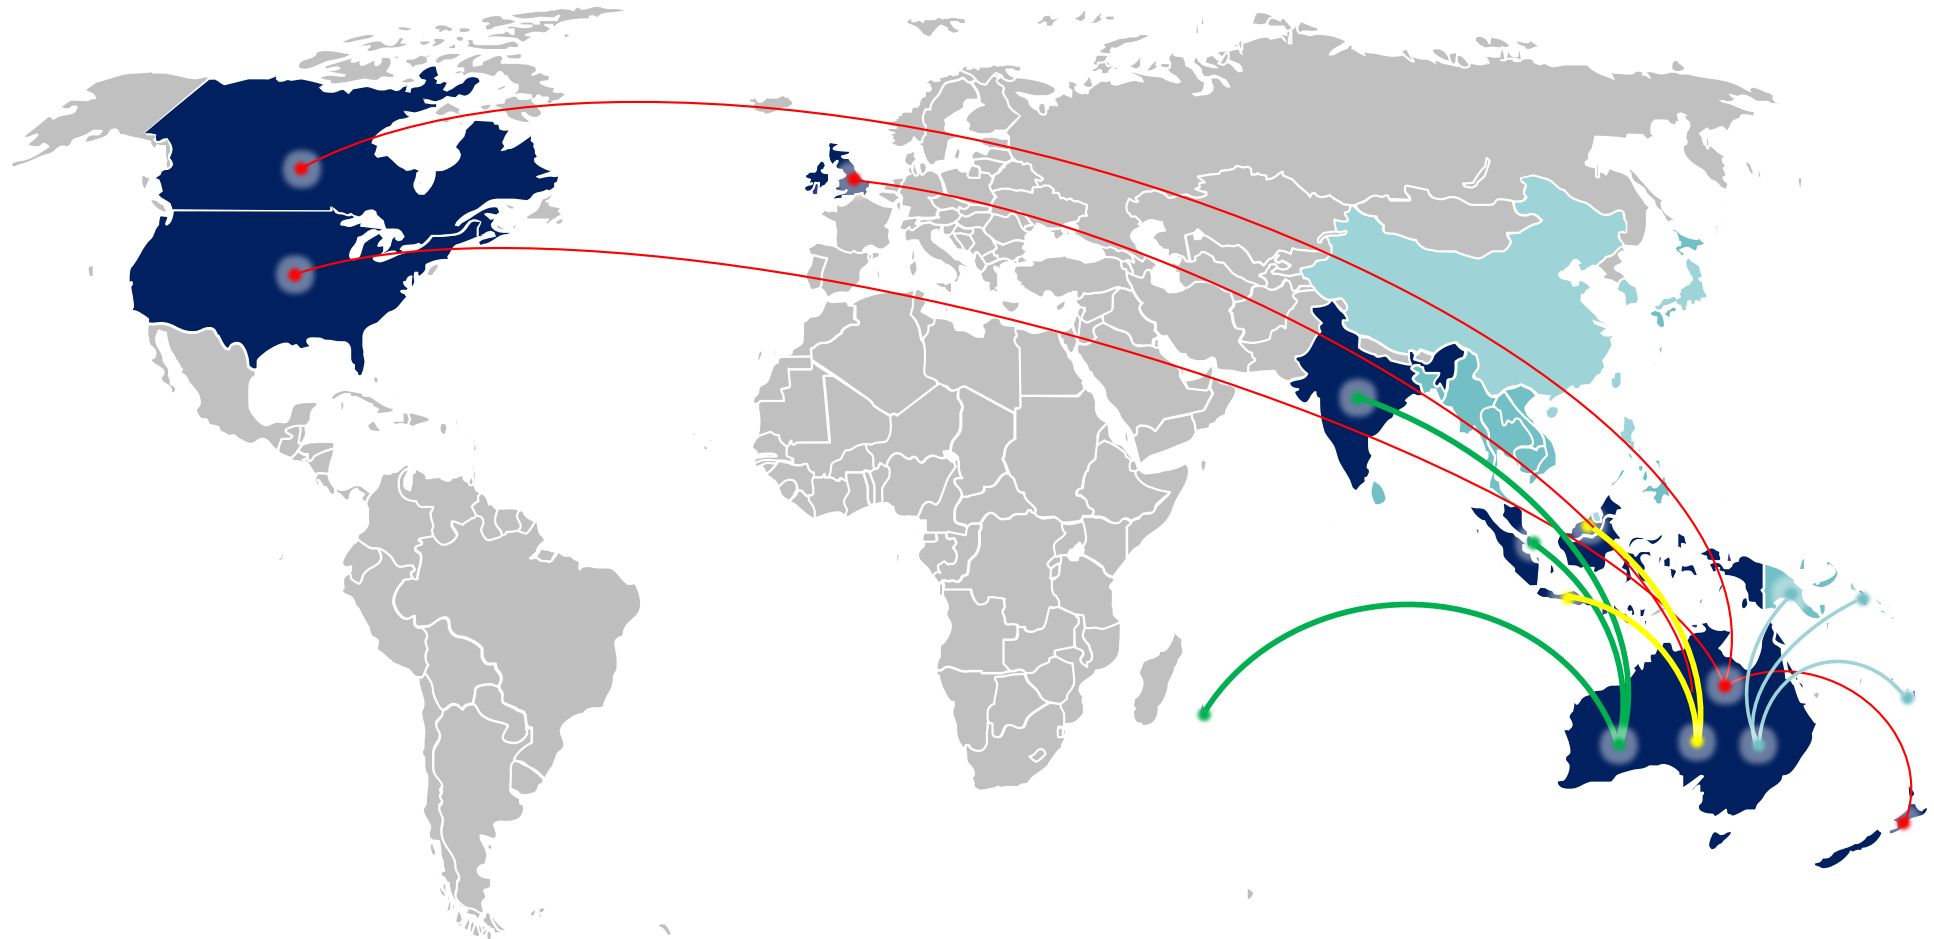

Australian
BORDER FORCE

MBC International Stakeholders

Bilateral Relationship,
Regular Information Sharing
(Reunion/India/Singapore)

Bilateral Relationship,
Adhoc Information Sharing
(AUS/Reunion/ India/ Malaysia)

MBC Multi-lateral Forum
(South Pacific / ReCAAP / HACGM)

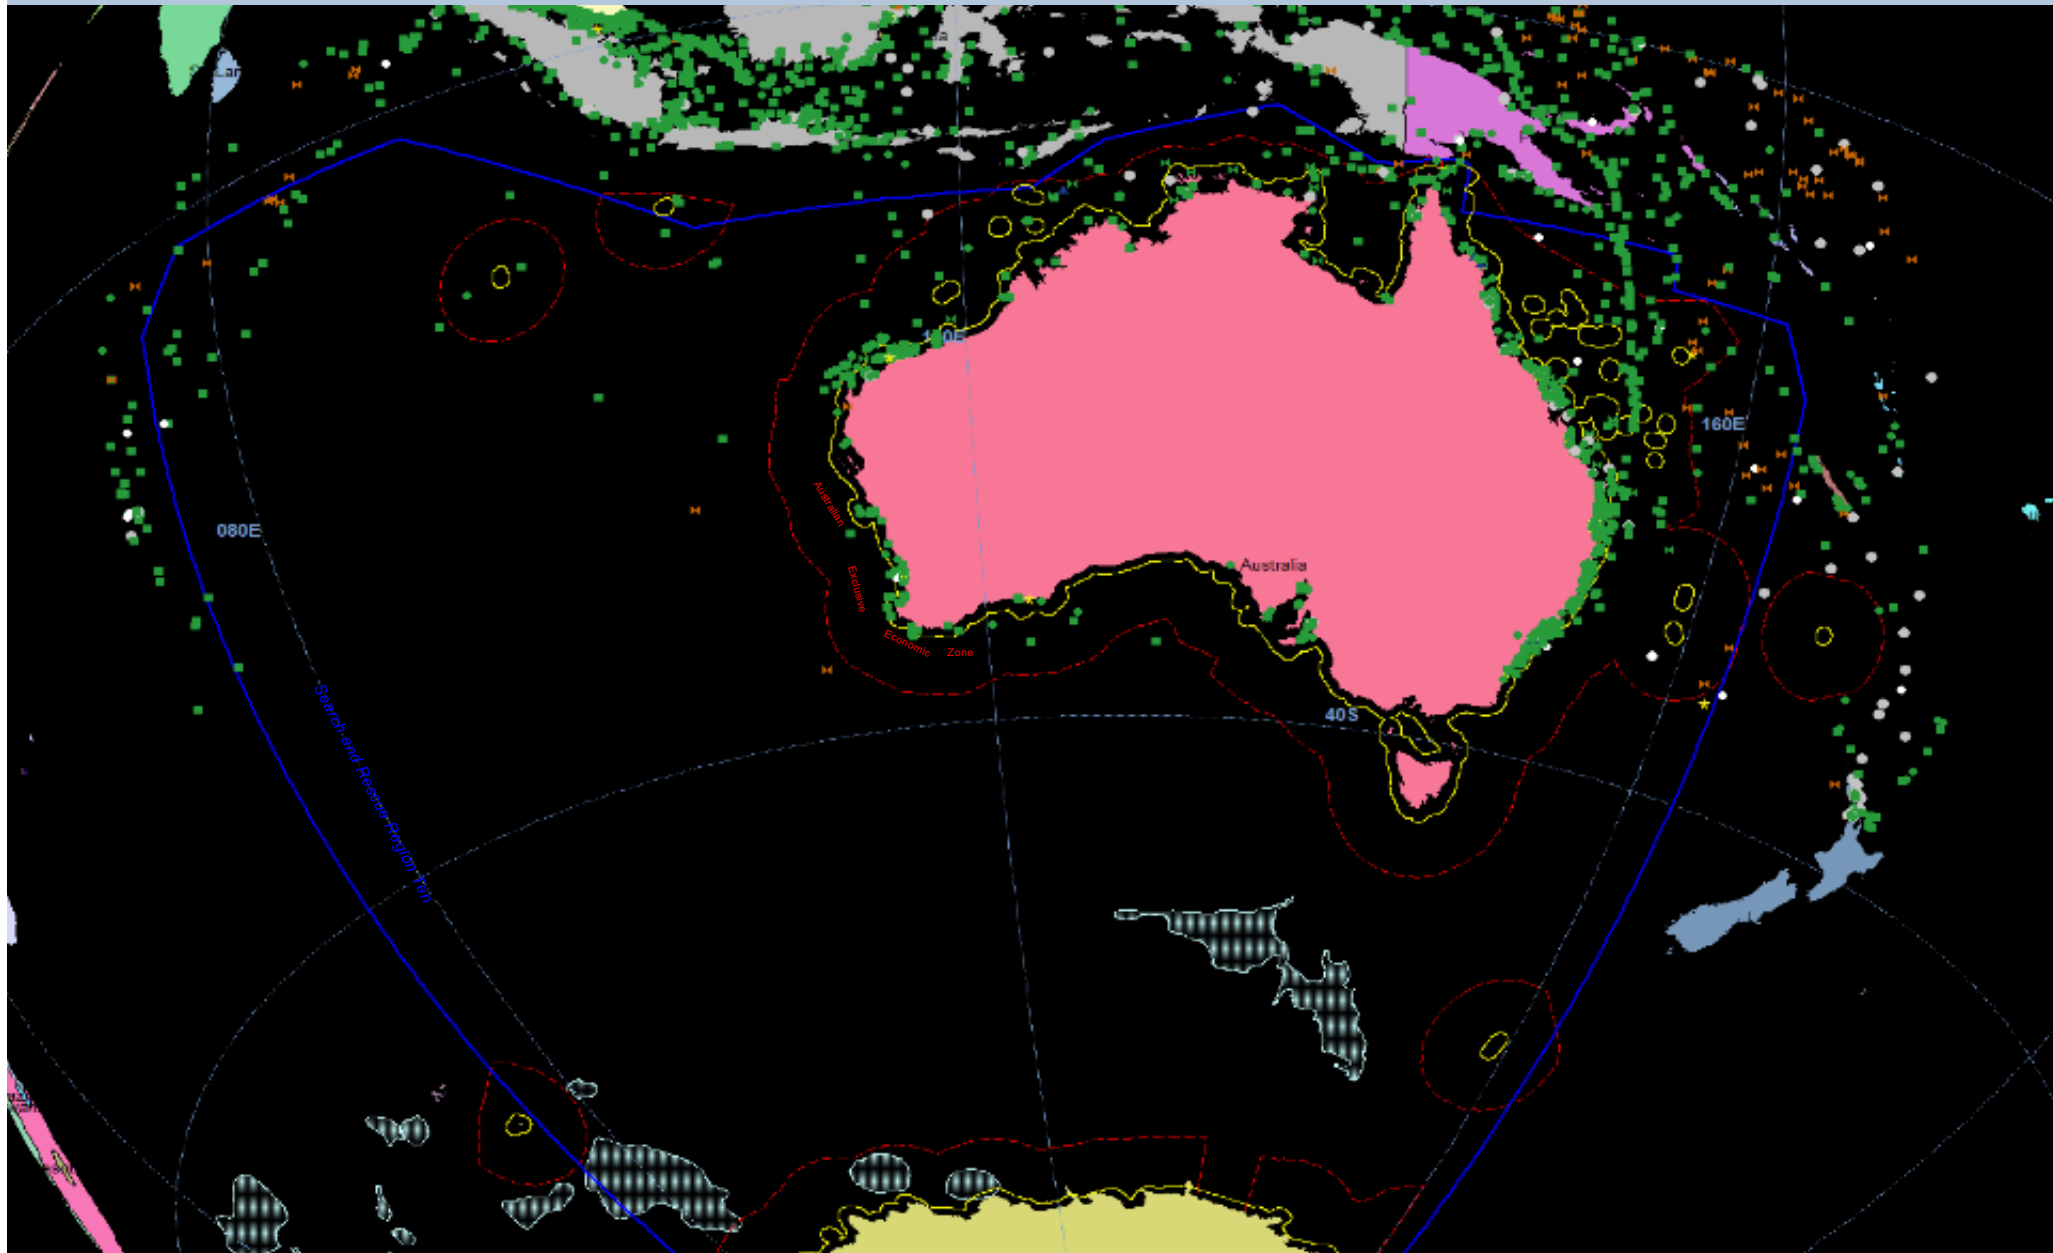

Multi-lateral Relationship
(AUS/CAN/UK/US/NZL)

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Maritime Domain Awareness (MDA)

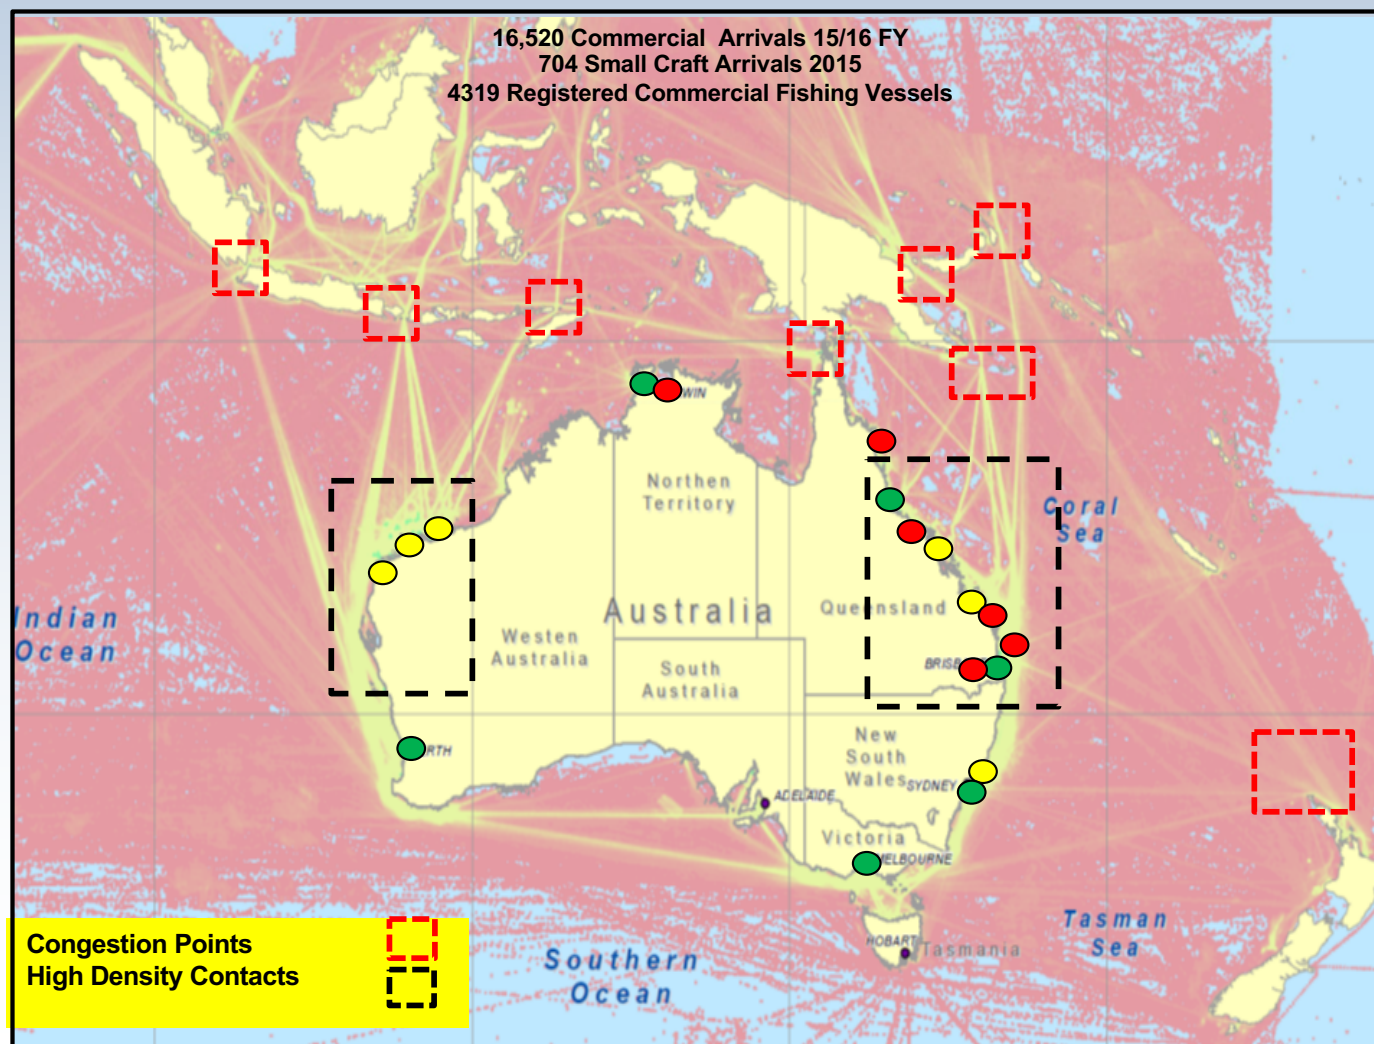

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Finding the Needle in the Haystack

- 20,000 to 30, 000 contacts to filter

Top Arrival Ports ●
Top Small Craft Arrival Ports ●
Top Container Ports ●

Australian
BORDER FORCE

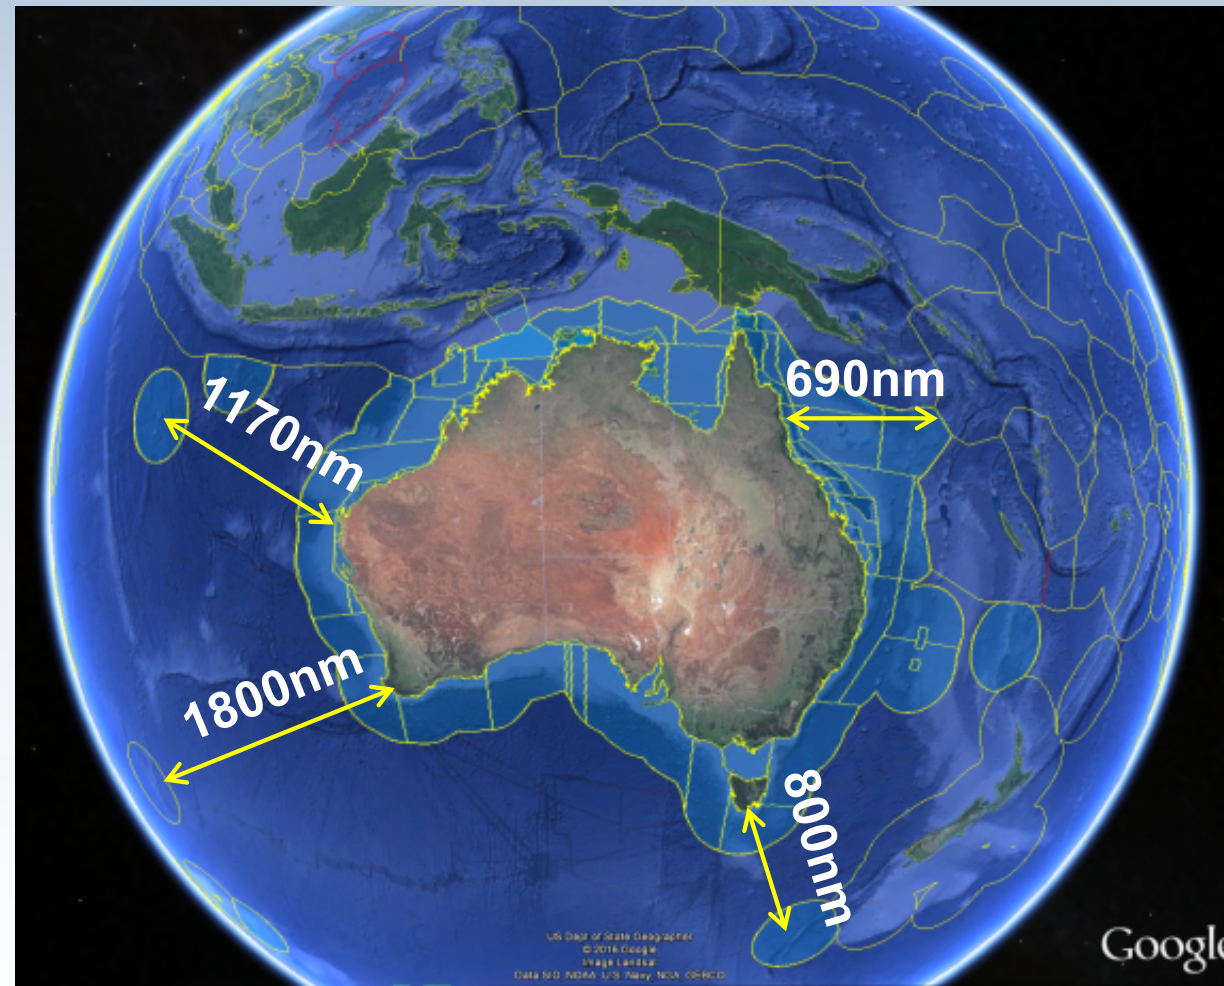

Our Maritime Security Challenge

Our unique geographic circumstances:

- 15m²km of ocean
- 36k km of coastline
- No land borders
- 4th largest EEZ
- 11% of the earth surface
- 42% of the Arctic Mainland

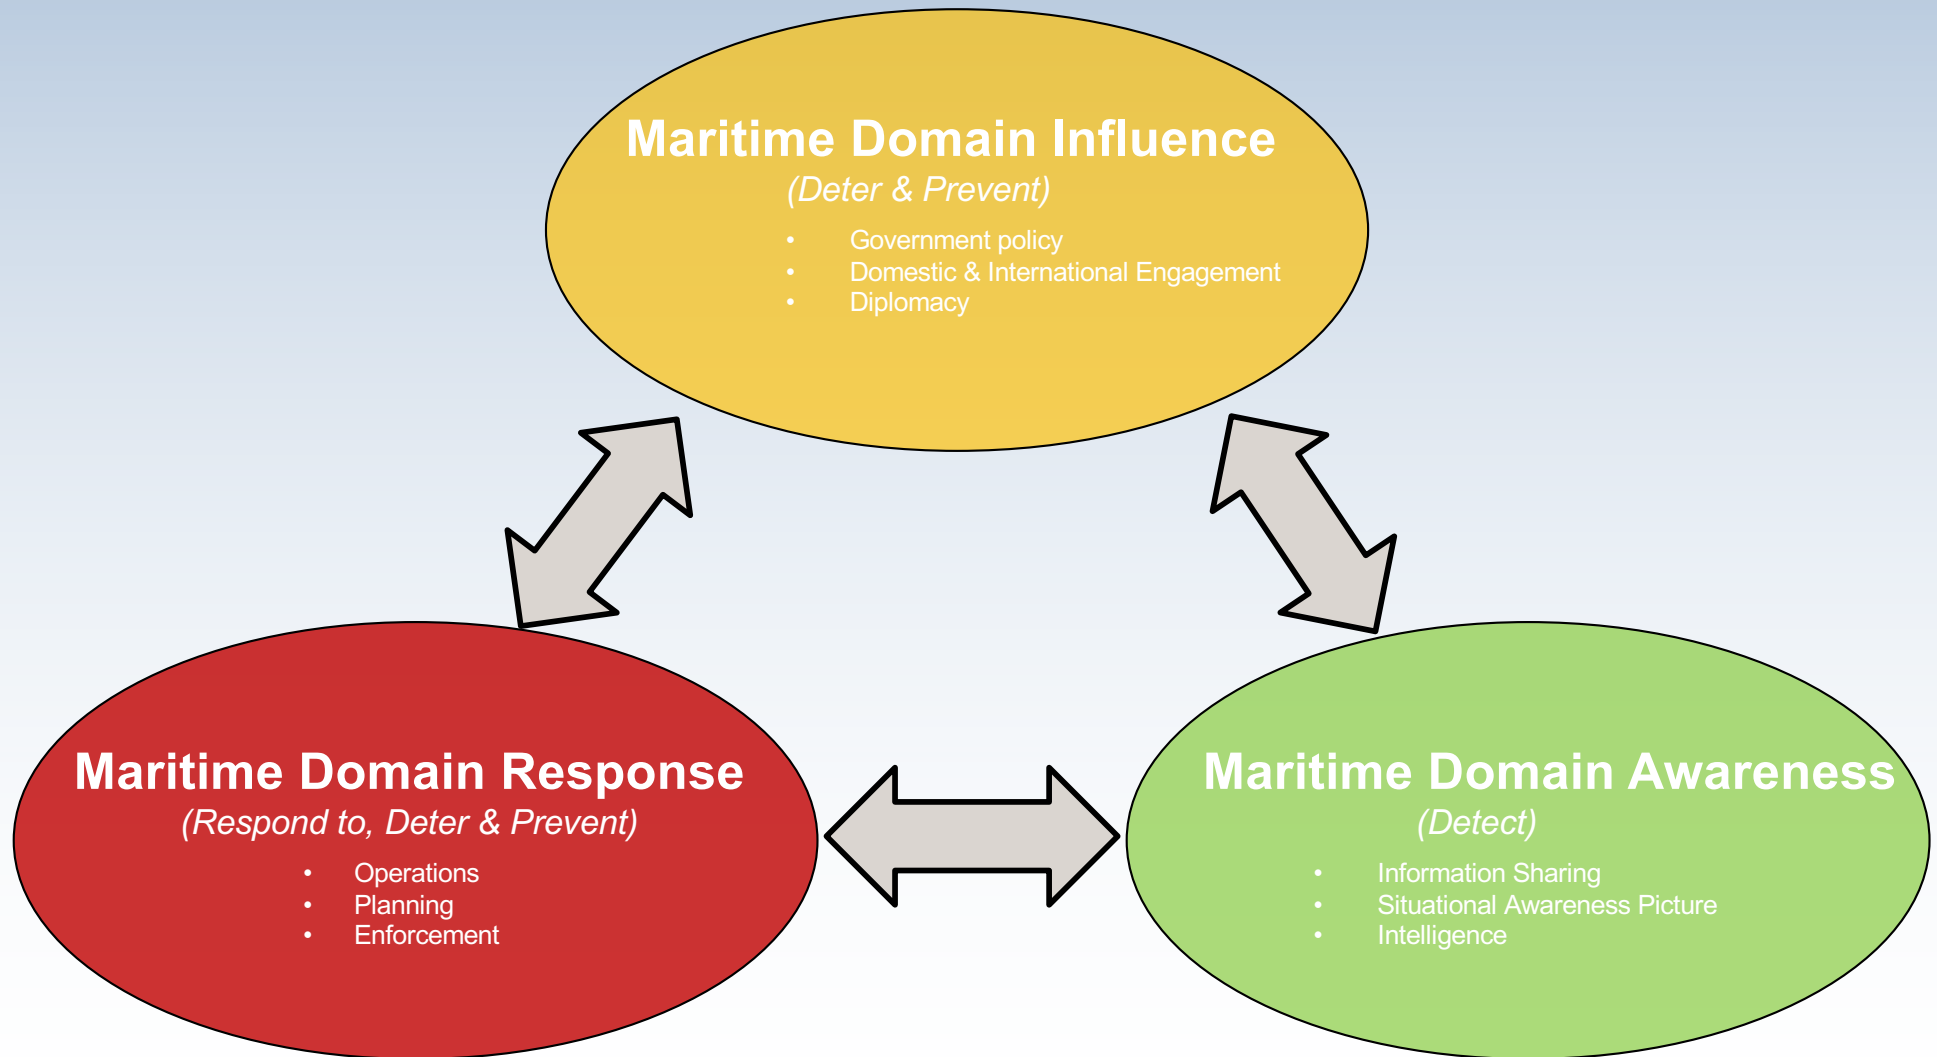

Australia's Maritime Area of Interest

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Civil Maritime Domain Management

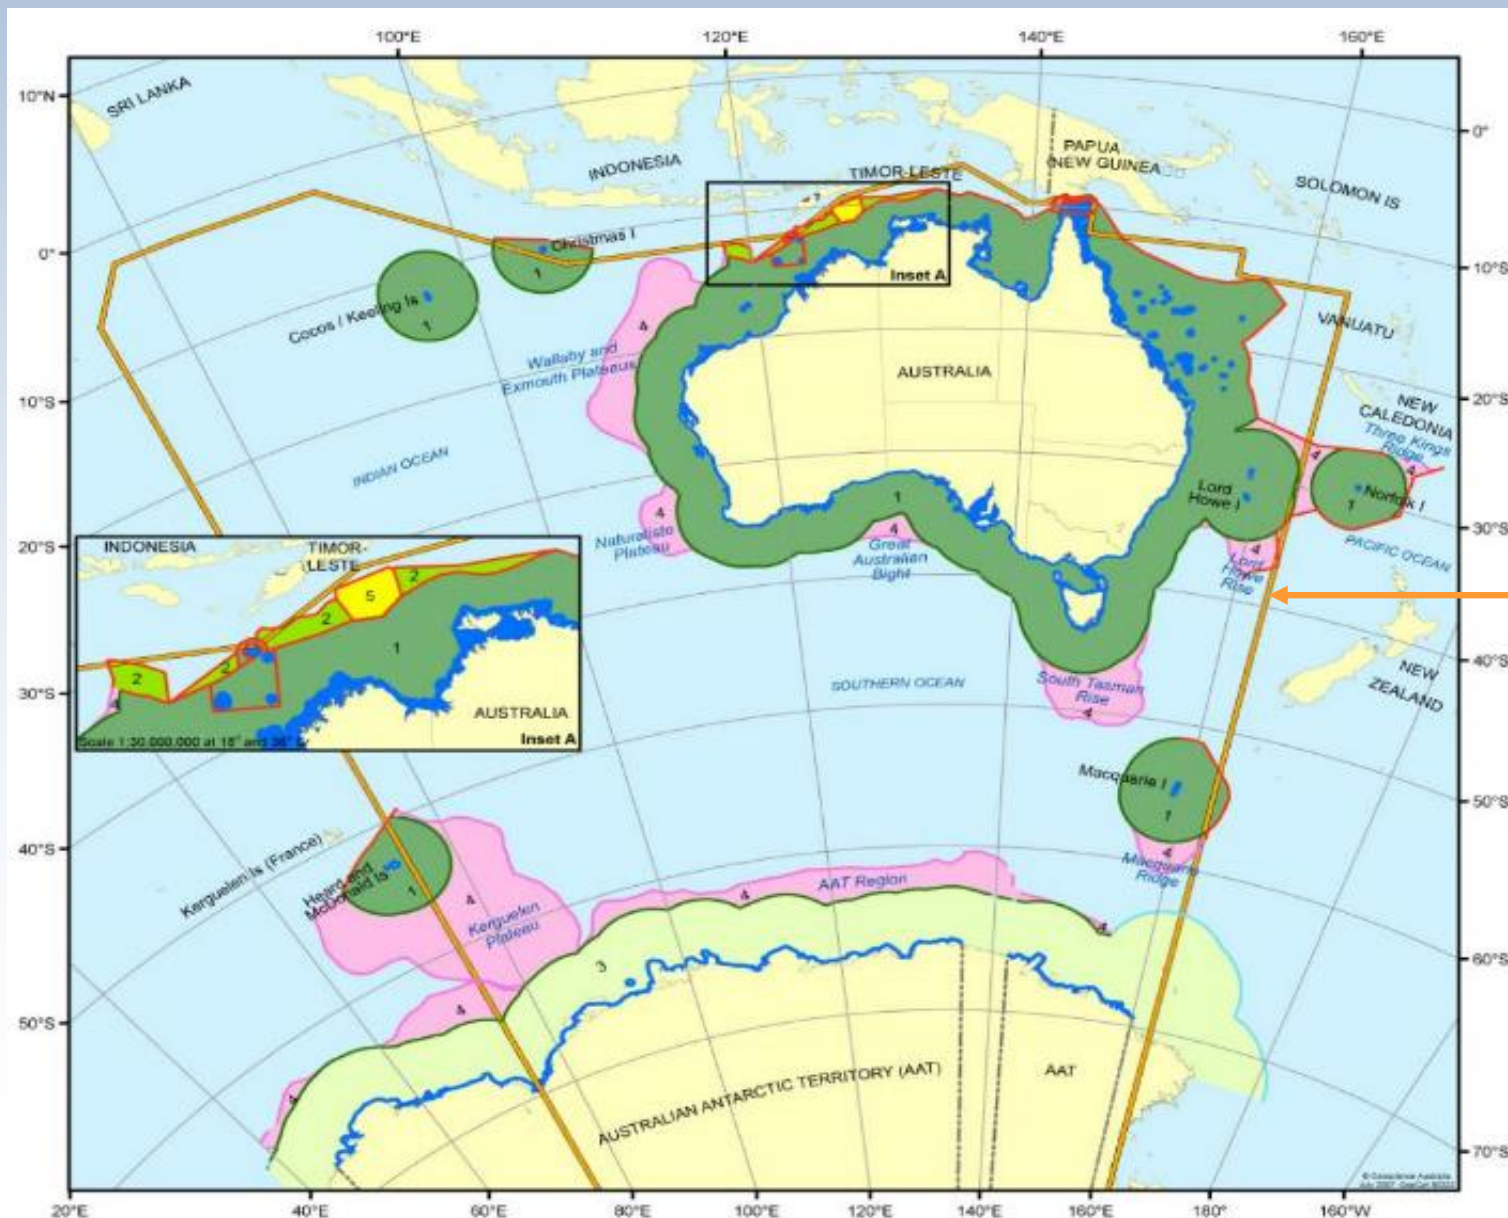

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Australian Maritime Domain

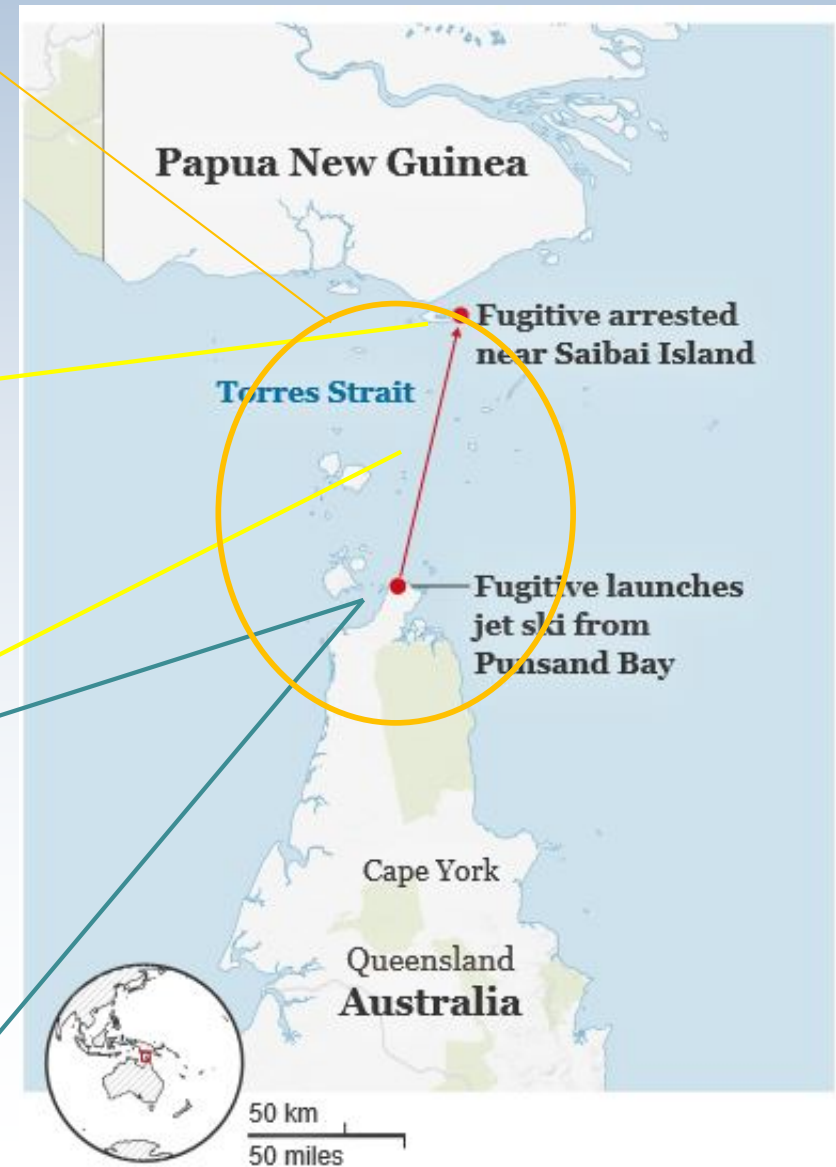

Security
Forces
Authority Area

Australian
BORDER FORCE

Torres Strait

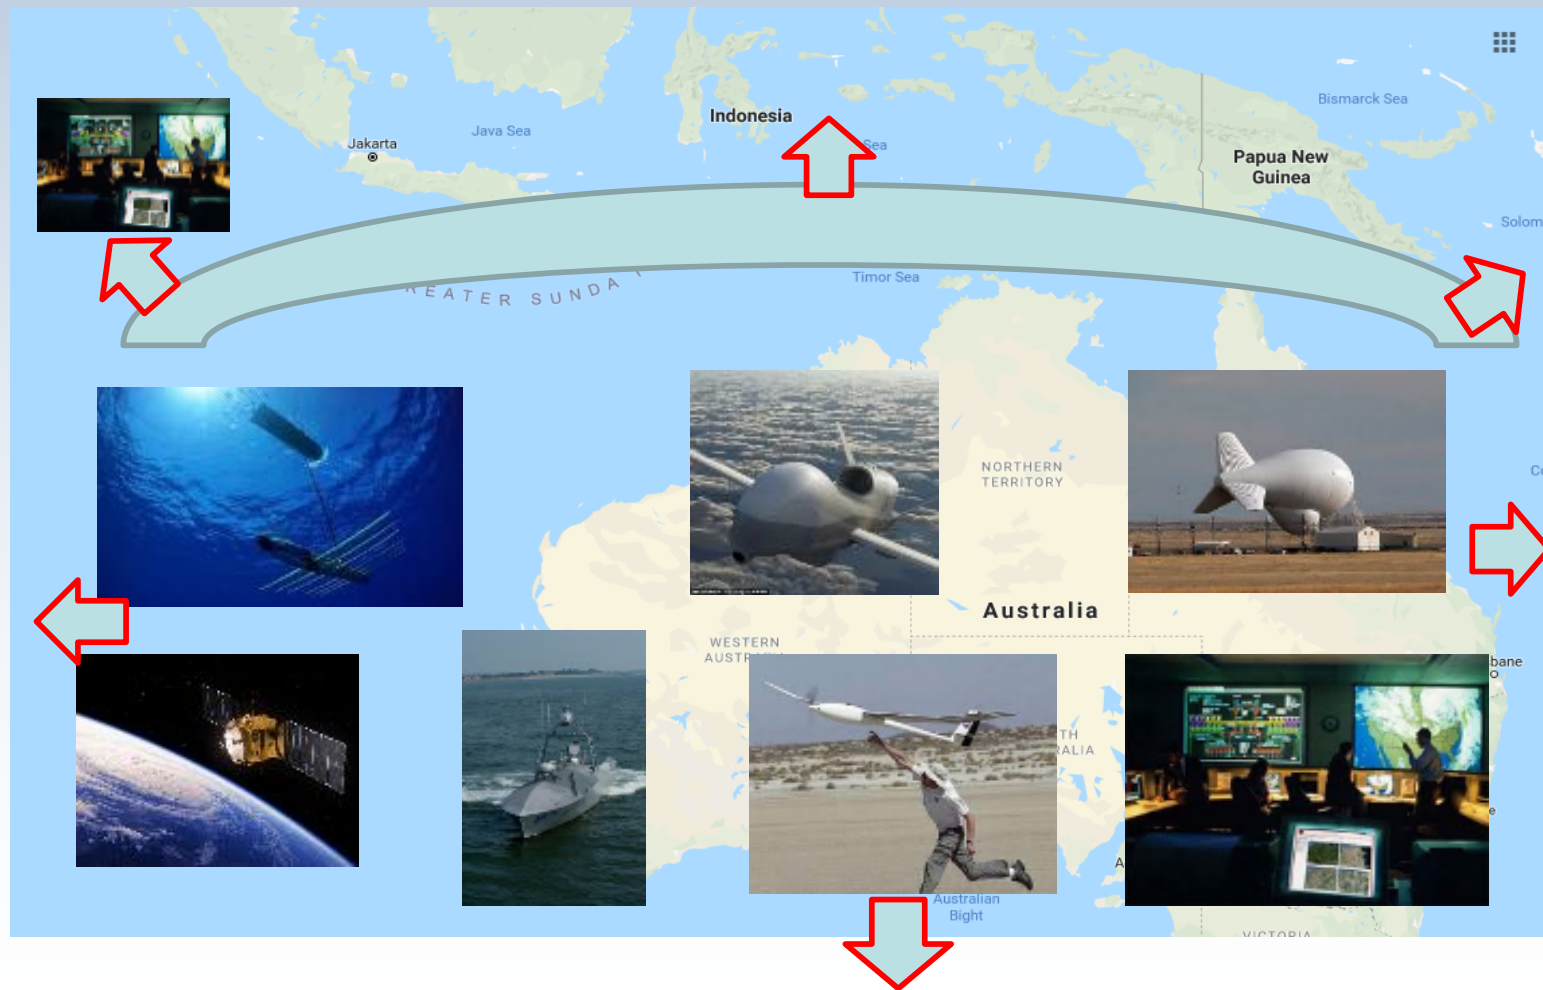

Australian
BORDER FORCE

What might the future MBC look like?

Questions...